

She who waits
Will eternally
Be home alone

Do not be afraid
To rinse in the wake of the morn
I never stray, says she
I never walk without a thorn

It is never a mystery
She lies awake
Away in a nightmare
Away in deep slumber

Do please no harm
I can not see the wake
She is not in
She can not see

There is never a day
When she is not near
She sees no one
She hears herself
But no one hears her

Where is she?
No, no one knows
Where is her reflect
Pull me deep
Sink to sleep
